2012 josh ...in celebration of life!

Every event in Sunbeam Bhagwanpur tests the golden resilience, awareness, enthusiasm and richness of thought and expression of staff and students. The evening of 20th of October, '12 watched and witnessed the depth of creativity of teachers and students on the occasion of Josh- The Hostel Annual Parents' Night. The enchanting arena of the Assembly Ground seemed luxuriously fit to pay tribute to the 100 years of Indian Cinema. The bedazzling set had a distinct replicated corner of Coffee with Karan style with Shubham Pahwa of class XII impersonating Karan Johar.

The comperes of the evening welcomed the audience. Prior to the exuberant mosaic of performances, the Hostel Annual Report was read out by the Hostel Superintendent, Mr. Rajeev Pratap, Sr. School Headmistress Mrs. Prerna Sharma, Hostel Head boy and Head girl Harsh and Shivali and the glimpses of the achievements were shown on screens. Then the Asstt. Director of Sunbeam Group, Ms. Pratima Gupta formally welcomed the dignitaries- the Chairman and the Director of the Sunbeam Group, Mr. Deepak Madhok and Mrs. Bharti Madhok amidst others along with the parents of the Boarders.

This was followed by a peep into the window of vision, enterprise, endeavour and success viz the Group's exemplary journey from a humble beginning to the pinnacle- as the enthralled audience witnessed the Eduserve Movie presented by Ms. Gurmeet Kaur, Principal of Sunbeam School Bhagwanpur. The movie showcased Sunbeam Group's inexorable and still continuing rise to success.

The show began with "Ganesh Vandana" to seek the blessings of the "Vighnaharta". Thereafter, began the dance of elements on the stage that broke the awed silence of the audience. The students impersonated the acting greats of yesteryear viz, Madhubala, Dadamoni of Indian cinema Ashok Kumar, Wahida Rehman, evergreen Dev Sahib, showman of bollywood Raj Kapoor, Nargis, Rekha and Amitabh Bacchan to today's heartthrob Ranbir Kapoor.

The cute conversation on the coffee table between the host-' Karan Johar' and the 'actors' was interspersed with the choicest song and dance embellishments picked from Bollywood. The extravagant couture of the various dance styles of India- Kathak, Manipuri, Oddisi, Bharatnatyam, Sufi etc were performed on the stage.

The culminating item of the evening was the fashion show which mirrored the glitz and glam of the cine world. The sighs of admiration continued to reverberate in the venue as the curtains drew with the valedictory address given by the Chairman and Director, Mr. Deepak Madhok and Mrs. Bharti Madhok followed by the national anthem.

DUSSEHRA CELEBRATION

Festivity and happiness spreads all over as soon as Navratri knocks our doors. The carnival time begins for one and all. A special assembly was held at Sunbeam Bhagwanpur, Junior school on 19th October, 2012 to offer tribute to the benign spirit of Bhagwati. The fire of victory engulfed the huge effigy of Ravana marking the end of evil and heralding goodness.

Along with the Dusherra celebration spirit of Navratri was evoked with a melodious folk rendition in Bengali—a mix performance of students and teachers. The sounds of 'Dhaak', the scent of 'Dhunachi' and everything in the assembly ground expressed that it was time to let loose and join the beat.

These celebrations go a long way in generating respect for the indigenous culture amongst the students.
