From the Visionaries...

"Every new beginning comes from some other's beginning's end."

Dear students, the time has come to bid adieu to you with a wistful heart from your second home which protected you, nurtured you, supported you, guided you, and shaped you all these years.

You all set to flutter your strong wings to soar up to the unbounded heights from the ledge of your Alma-mater. You will certainly carve a new illustrious chapter in your coming life. You are going to leave behind such a deep void that would certainly be irreplaceable. We would always be indebted to you all for disseminating the patrimony of your sheer-brilliance, resilience and exuberance to all your academic juniors at Sunbeam, Bhagwanpur.

Our institution has incessantly endeavored to give you the best academics, provided you with the necessary tools to improve your skills and elevated ethics and values in you besides leading you in the path of spirituality.

Hope, you will use your life skills efficiently and effectively on stepping into a new competitive world, which is full of opportunities as well as challenges. Now, you are intellectual potential and capable of achieving your life ambitions by exercising determination, and never failing efforts. Life is a fabulous journey full of expectations, joys, fantasies and, of course, a few sad moments.

Now, you stand at the threshold of crucial juncture in your life, all set to enter into a completely new world with enthusiasm and hopes.

Since its inception in 1972, the institution has traversed a glorious journey studded with numerous landmark accomplishments in the field of academics and co-curricular activities.

Let us join our hands and #followtheLight and spread the Sunbeam Bhagwanpur's sublime- beam to every corner of the globe.

Jai Hind!

Dr. Deepak Madhok & Mrs. Bharti Madhok
(Chairman) (Director)

From the Assistant Director

Ms. Pratima Gupta

The portals of Sunbeam BGN bid a wistful farewell to the outgoing students and look forward to seeing you soaring higher and higher in the sky of aspirations and reaching the pinnacle of success. Each session that ends, opens a window that reveals challenging heights yet to be scaled. Driven by an inherent quest for excellence, we march past one after another milestone. The old orders change yielding place to new ones in all realms of human endeavours. The educational arena cannot remain immuned to changes. You need to keep abreast with the latest changes happening in the socio-economic, scientific, technological, and global matrix. It is high time for you to step out of your comfort zone and explore Inquiry and Research Based learning to move in the higher orbit of learning. We, at Sunbeam BGN, stand committed to impart quality education for your holistic development. We also identify, encourage and endeavour to hone all creative and intellectual faculties in you. I am sure our training and teaching have illustrated the inter-relationship of all disciplines of knowledge, promoted social and reflective thinking, and fostered the ability to face the myriad challenges of life comfortably. Wish you all the best for your future endeavours. May all your dreams be transformed into reality by means of your efforts and determination. you all the best for your future endeavours.

From the Honorary Director

Dear students

I fervently wish that the spirit of education, excellence and exuberance may unfold new paths in your lives. The memories that you created at Sunbeam, the moments you lived-- the life lessons you learnt here will definitely remain within your hearts as a token of bonding and love that this institution shares with you. Nature poses several challenges to those who really wish to achieve high goals in their lives. I firmly believe that the assets of human values that you built in the premises of this august institution will definitely help you in overcoming any sort of hurdle on the path of progress and make you flourish yourself high in the sky of success.

I heartily wish that after passing from Sunbeam you land into the best institutions of the country and the world and render service to humanity by the dint of your duty, devotion and discipline. You are the flag bearers of future and I am highly convinced that your presence shall make the world a better place to live.

The following quote of Ernest Hemingway would be the final word to bid you a farewell definitely with a heavy heart. "May success kiss you and glory adorn you in every time and space." My best wishes to each one of you.

Mr. Harsh Madhok

Mr. Sandeep Mukherjee

From the C.O.O.

Dear Students

Now that the time has come to say good bye, I recollect the kind of difficulties and uncertainties all of you went through in the last couple of years. This has certainly made you more resolute and optimally equipped with the skills to deal with a crisis situation. The coming days are more of skills and effective implementation of knowledge - and the more you extrapolate beyond the four walls of your classrooms, the wider your knowledge and experience become. Be a winner, an influencer, a motivator and a change maker for the world... remember, those who win hearts are remembered for ever and those who win trophies become data in the record books. Keep smiling and be a reason for happiness for others.

God bless!

From the Principal

During your life in this school, we believe, we have given you the necessary tools, academic, moral and spiritual for the very challenging task of living a meaningful life in spite of all the trials and tribulations. We will watch and pray that you use these tools efficiently and effectively in your life ahead.

It is time to let you go and I do that with the same prayer that I had for you every morning when I saw you at the assembly at the start of the day-that each of you reaches the fullness of life, achieve your dreams and make a mark in the world as a Sunbeam.

Go forth and embrace your future with open arms, and enthusiastically pursue your own life- journey of discovery. Render dedicated service to humanity and live a happy and peaceful life.

May God bless you abundantly. Wish you all the very best in life...Stay connected.

Ms. Prerna Sharma

From the Headmistress

Ms. Mousumi Bhattacharya

As you stand on the threshold of a new chapter, I want to convey my heartfelt congratulations on the journey you've undertaken so far. The upcoming board exams mark the transition from school life to a broader world of opportunities. This moment is not just about exams; it's about the skills, friendships, and memories you've cultivated during your time here. Embrace the excitement of entering the next phase with a sense of accomplishment and anticipation. Remember, this is not a farewell but a launch into a world awaiting your talents and potential. Trust in your abilities, be resilient, and seize the countless possibilities ahead.

From the Academic Head

My dear students, despite some hard tasks and unusual challenges that you encountered in the course of your studies in your final year, at the end of it all, you completed this part of journey with great achievements and beautiful memories. Being tough with you at times was to prepare you for a greater challenge ahead, and to nurture you to build a strong foundation for your next level. Under our guidance, you have attained this impressive milestone in your life with great honor and integrity. I wish to thank you for the uncommon zeal you have demonstrated towards your studies, in your relationship with the teachers, management, the junior students, and even among yourselves.

Be kind and good to people you meet on your way up. Think big thoughts and be optimistic in whatever you are doing. I bid you farewell and wish you best of luck in your days ahead. May God bless you all!

Ms. Saroj Pandey

Will..Class of 2023 - 24

Standing on the brink of farewell, waves of nostalgia wash over me. The journey from a naive 7th grader to today feels like a blur of growth and lasting connections in these five fleeting years.

COVID thrust formidable challenges our way, testing our resilience. Yet, as the saying goes, "Once the night hits, the sunrise is upon us." Post the chaos, my tenure as Head Boy brought solace and growth. Organizing events and diving into language lab brainstorming weren't just tasks; they were pure moments of joy etched in my memory. In the words of Albert Einstein, "Education is not the learning of facts, but the training of the mind to think."

To my juniors, classmates, and revered teachers, gratitude for shaping my character. Remember, this school is more than walls; it's a foundation for your dreams. Stand tall, face challenges, and let growth be your ever-present ally.

Apoorv Singh 12-J
(Head-Boy)

I entered this school as a three-year-old girl. Even though that little girl had never been away from home, she walked into PG-B fearlessly, as if she had known that place forever. Fifteen years later, I walk out of this school as a mature, independent person. Sunbeam has given me everything that I can call my own today. Every event I participated in, every school trip I went on, every class project I made has shaped me as a person.

Everyone in this school has their own unique personality; some are writers, some are dancers, while others are athletes. Children feared being left behind or not fitting in. But when we all would gather around in the atrium and sing the school song together, all our differences would fade away. The only identity that remained was that of a Sunbeam.

This school feels like home to me. And as I leave behind my home with the batch of 2024, I hope my juniors will uphold the values of our school. I hope that even decades later, there is a place for everyone and a home for all.

Ishita Mukherjee 12-X
(Head Girl)

A resisting attitude. "I do not want to go school again"

A reminiscing virtue. "I wish I could GO BACK there AGAIN."

'There' is not just a place, we want to come back but a cherished memory, we want to revisit.

To live in those same classrooms, running in those corridors and that same food court. Being a part of Sunbeam was never my choice as in pristine but if my life was a movie, this would be the turning point scene. It has given me vision-enunciated with clever prose, opportunities to evolve, better perseverance, the people- always supporting and guiding, the platform to grow and confidence to show. Two short years have given me moments to cherish forever and lessons to recite always.

In the city lights, after the school, between the rushing cars and adulting life, you will not get this moment again.

Juniors, just Hear out- "Always, follow the PAUSE AND PLAY rule."

Stop, learn, enjoy and evolve in the moment.

Cherish the spontaneity, the unexpected friendships, and the unforeseen challenges "Yoo, admins... run!"

PS-DO NOT TO QUIT EVER. Sit firm and resolute and reach the destination. Make the best out of your school life. Something you could be very proud of while reviving the days, make it a cause to celebrate.

Aditi Singh 12-I

Will..Class of 2023 - 24

Sunbeam, the abode of knowledge, enrichment and exploration has provided me with experiences that are so vividly etched in my mind and heart. From reading the prescribed textbooks to mastering various art forms, Sunbeam has been my guiding light. The first day I walked into the corridors of Sunbeam, I read a quote that said, "Education is the passport to your future" and I vividly remember my father pointing that out to me. While this process of attaining our passports to future is never-ending, it was the time I spent at Sunbeam that made it fulfilling. Today, as a part of the Batch of 2024, I bid adieu to the best 6 years of my life and what I leave behind is a legacy that all Sunbeams have followed since day one. Duty, Devotion and Discipline. That is the way of a Sunbeam. That is the way to Sunbeam. Jai hind!

Varsha Singh 12-X

I joined this school in 2012, from being a little kid, reaching home from school at 12 noon to now being an ambitious kid who studies till 12 at midnight, I'm grateful to the school for providing me with the support of brilliant teachers, loyal friends, academics and co-curricular activities like how 12 months offer a variety of seasons to nurture us.

"The movie never changes, it can't change. But every time you see it, it seems different because you change." Quoting the movie 12 Monkeys here, as a science student, experimenting with life, like in labs can sometimes lead to groundbreaking but other times to disastrous results. 12th grade is a strange phase to be in. There's the desire to stay here with these people, but also to run from the system, towards the 12 hundred promises the future makes to you, and towards the 12 thousand promises you've made to the future. There is joy and satisfaction, and there are regrets. The past can't be changed and moving on is the only option where your glow-ups and scars reflect your future. Because, looking behind with different perspectives as we grow, they're just lessons...they're tools and you're a sculptor using these to sculpt your future.

I hope my juniors realize this sooner than me who's realizing as my ship reaches the destination of my 12-year journey, in this magnificent sea - our school hopefully becoming a skillful sailor to navigate my future.

S. Sudeeksha 12-A

As I bid farewell, I implore you to seize every opportunity that comes your way. Create pathways where none exist, and never shy away from challenges. Your fears are stepping stones to success; face them boldly. Remember, each effort you give is a step closer to your dreams.

Be resilient, be daring, and always strive for your best. The school is a canvas; paint your legacy with passion and determination. Embrace the unknown, for therein lies the beauty of growth. Every stroke of courage and perseverance adds to the masterpiece of your journey.

Wishing you a future filled with accomplishments and joy. Carry the torch of knowledge and integrity, lighting your path to success. The world is waiting for the unique imprint only you can make. May your endeavors be guided by purpose, your days be filled with learning, and your achievements be a testament to your unwavering dedication.

Remember the roots that ground you and the wings that propel you forward. The future is yours to shape, and I have no doubt that you will leave an indelible mark. Embrace the challenges, celebrate the victories, and cherish the growth. The canvas is vast, and your potential is boundless.

Kuljot Kaur 12-I

Will..Class of 2023 - 24

Remember, failure is not the opposite of success; it's a stepping stone towards it. Don't be afraid to stumble, for each fall is an opportunity to rise stronger. Embrace challenges with an open heart, for they are the crucible in which your character is forged.

As you navigate the labyrinth of life, be compassionate. Extend a helping hand to your peers, share your knowledge generously, and understand that empathy is a powerful force that binds us all. In a world that often seems divided, be the bridge that connects hearts.

Take pride in your individuality. Each one of you is a unique constellation of talents, ideas, and perspectives. Celebrate diversity, for it is the mosaic of differences that makes our collective experience richer.

Never underestimate the power of continuous learning. The world is ever-evolving, and knowledge is the key to staying relevant. Embrace new ideas, be curious, and let the pursuit of knowledge be a lifelong adventure.

Last but definitely not the least, honor the traditions and values that define our school. They are the bedrock of our shared identity. Carry them forward with pride, but also be the architects of positive change. Your fresh perspectives can breathe new life into our venerable institution.

Arpita Dubey 12-H

Life is a tapestry of experiences, and your time in this school has woven a unique thread into that intricate design. As you step into the shoes we're about to vacate, remember that you are not merely inheriting our positions; you are embracing a legacy of camaraderie, knowledge, and resilience.

Firstly, value the friendships you've forged. The late-night study sessions, the laughter in the classrooms, and the support during tough times – these bonds are the foundation of your journey. Nurture them, cherish them, for it's these connections that will be your pillars of strength.

Next, dare to dream boldly. Your aspirations are the compass guiding you through uncharted waters. Whether it's in academics, sports, arts, or any pursuit close to your heart, set audacious goals. Let the enormity of your dreams be a testament to your courage.

Nandini Khetan 12 L

I wish to express my gratitude for the opportunities the school provided and offer guidance to my successors through this Academic will.

In the spirit of passing on the legacy, I bequeath the following thoughts to my successors at our beloved school:

Our juniors should embrace the privilege of leadership with humility and empathy. Guide their fellow students with compassion. They should always strive for unity and inclusivity.

Pursue knowledge ardently, always remember that true education extends beyond textbooks, foster curiosity and a love for learning among your peers.

Let your achievements inspire, but also recognize the responsibility that comes with success. Encourage others to reach their full potential and contribute positively to the school community. Cherish the bonds formed within these walls. Support one another in times of triumph and challenge. Your collective spirit defines the essence of our school.

I also leave a modest legacy fund to encourage continuous excellence. May it serve as a reminder that our shared journey is sustained by the dedication and unity of each student who passes through these halls.

Prerna Tripathi 12-C

Will. Class of 2023 - 24

My experience at Sunbeam Bhagwanpur has been an extended period of real excellence, and when examined closely, it is more about fulfilling the desires of your heart. Speaking about the teachers, administrators, and board members, all of them are genuinely helpful, hardworking, and always ready to address the concerns of the students. At times, you might feel as if the teachers have a metaphorical gun to your head, but in reality, it's their way of expressing the importance of learning.

Bhagwanpur and its team have consistently worked to bring out the best in children. Now, as I pass on the legacy of my school to my juniors, I want them to understand that our school is filled with natural aspects such as criticism, joy, loneliness, a sense of family, fun, etc. This school is like our second home, the first being where we learn about life and the other where we pursue our life goals. Extend your hands in a friendly manner, break down social barriers, regardless of the terms, and make your life achievable. Turn it into something you dreamt of as a child.

Sanyam Keshari 12-G

I joined sunbeam 2 years ago in 2022 as a boarder. Since then, I never looked back. All the teachers uplifted me in many aspects including academics, sports and quizzing. I personally believe that because of the atmosphere I got at Sunbeam, my conversation skills, writing skills and Co curriculars got significantly enhanced. I feel proud to be a part of this institution. My message to the juniors is to stay focused and determined towards your goal during the most important phase of your life. There might be hardships onto your path, but you need to overcome them and move on as time waits for none. Therefore, give your best and thereby continuing the legacy of Sunbeam

Utkarsh Agrahari 12-D

As you embark on this transformative journey through our hallowed halls, consider this not just a chapter but a pivotal story in your life. Seek wisdom in books, camaraderie in classmates and inspiration in teachers.

Seize every opportunity to delve into diverse realms, for it is the tapestry of varied experiences that molds a well - rounded individual. Be a beacon of support for your peers, and together, create a legacy of unity and understanding.

In the treasury of school memories, let the laughter during lunch breaks echo, recall the exhilaration of sports day and the collective thrill of achievement. May the classroom debates, the impromptu performances and the bonds formed in extracurricular pursuits be etched in your heart. Remember the warmth of teachers' encouragement and pride in representing our school.

May your aspirations soar, and your endeavours leave an indelible mark on the canvas of our alma mater.

As I sit here with a pen in my hand and the texture of paper on my palms, I smile in nostalgia of the years I've spent in the halls of this school. Sunbeam has been a part of my life ever since I joined in Upper Kindergarten, and I have grown up with prestige and legacy of this name. From the days we spent looking for our classes, confused and lost, till today, when we know the school like the backs of our hands. Today, I hand down this mantle to my juniors, to you, as you take our places to represent our school. I cherish all the wonderful times I have spent here, teachers & admins have been there like an epitome of belief and pillars of strength, always. Discover your best versions and let the colors out like the spectra, like, Sunbeams. Spot your opportunities and grow, spread out your wings and soar. This illustrious institute will take you there. I wish you the best so that you carry this legacy with pride and hope, taking the world fearlessly as you make your place in society

Medha Tiwari 12-C

My first class was class 1-E in AB-1. We only had two academic blocks at that time. Even though it has been so long, still I vividly remember our old assembly ground with the big banyan tree, our old canteen and basketball court.

It has been an amazing experience so far, from the academics, co-curricular activities to the support and guidance we received from our teachers and seniors. And now here we are, as we say goodbye to our school days. There might be some tears, but there will also be plenty of smiles remembering the amazing days we have spent here.

During this time, we laughed and cried, attended school functions, picnics, and bunked classes. I am sure that we all are going to miss all this.

Last year I was there sitting in the crowd, watching my seniors give their farewell speech, sharing their ups and downs and today I am stood here at this podium. To all my dear juniors, you will be on this podium next year sharing your experience. So have fun and study just as hard, because this school has a legacy, a legacy of excellence and we, the students, must continue it forward.

Utkarsh Gupta 12-J

With just a handful of days remaining before I part ways. It has been two years since I joined this campus. I wondered if I would really give my best here, surrounded by apprehension and being new to everyone. Roaming in the campus with my new friends, we were unknown to everyone, which brought nervousness and sometimes insecurity. However, this place is full of wonders; it taught me to think in every aspect of my life.

Two years have passed, and I can't figure out how much I enjoyed these two years of my life. It went into making friends and developing attachments to the place and the people here. I can't even imagine how time flew; it seems like yesterday my car went out of the gate leaving me here, and now I'm bidding farewell to this life.

To the torchbearers of tomorrow, I would advise enjoying your life on campus, taking advantage of the opportunities this place offers. This is a space where you can enhance your skills, your personality, and every aspect of yourself, nurturing your growth into this new life.

Shreesh Gupta 12-J

Will..Class of 2023 - 24

7 years ago, I was standing in front of class 5-D, afraid to enter the class, today as I bid farewell to my school days a whirlwind of emotions envelope me.

7 years passed by and I still cannot believe that these are the final moments of my school life, it's as if I were just starting to get comfortable, everything came to an end in a blink.

As I step into the next chapter of my life, I carry with me not only the embrace of knowledge but also friendship that has molded my very being today. From waltzing in the corridors to sitting on the slides, everything will be missed.

To my friends, here's to our journeys we've embarked on together and the adventures that await us individually, to my juniors, my heartfelt wishes to all of you who will continue their journey in this institution. you'll discover not only academic growth but lifelong friendships and lessons that transcend textbooks.

Vartika 12-E

As I embark on my departure from this school. I promise to return in the future. As I bid farewell, I want to express my gratitude for the amazing journey of school life to my teachers.

Right from the first day of my school, I have been curious towards learning new things. I participated in various extra-curricular activities be it music, debate, quiz or Cricket. I remember the moments I cherished during visit to IIT BHU and then to Kalpakkam for quiz events.

I would like to share four points which I've found really useful:

Make mistakes and make lots of them. Good judgement comes from experience and experience comes from bad judgement. Don't afraid to make mistakes and learn from them.

Learn to unlearn and relearn. Earlier we were taught that there are 9 planets and now there are 8 planets as Pluto isn't classified as a planet anymore. This growth mindset is important as things change and we will have to adapt.

"What got you here, won't get you there."

(c) Carpe diem: This Latin phrase means "seize the day." Take charge of opportunities and pursue your dreams.

(d) Practise gratitude and count your blessings.

Wishing you all the best!

Ahaan Shaurya 12-E

As I observed my parents' car departing, I pondered whether I would truly find my place here or if I was ensnared in a vast cloud of uncertainties, especially with my cherished mobile phone confiscated. Walking down the corridor on the first day of school brought forth nervousness and uncertainty, but this place worked wonders. In what way? In every conceivable sense.

The two years swiftly passed, filled with the formation of friendships and connections with people and this place. I scarcely realized that here I stand, at this very entrance gate, bidding farewell to this life-changing experience.

To the torchbearers of tomorrow, live each moment within this campus to the fullest, grow as individuals in every facet of your lives, and remain committed to every opportunity that comes your way.

School Anthem

We are the children of Sunbeam
Over the whole world we'll shine,
Shining stars of our country,
On stormy seas darkest nights.

Years and miles will take us away
To find our fortunes one fine day
But in our hearts we'll never forget
The Sunbeam of our childhood days

We love to honour our teachers,
We sacrifice for our friends;
We labour and fight for glory,
Till our life finally ends.

We have the beauty of the Taj Mahal,
And strength of the Himalaya Peaks;
We have the kindness of Buddha
And the virtues of Tulsi, Kabir.

We work hard to make a bright future,
And do the best in every attempt;
We promise to love our country;
And stand for truth till the end.

UDAAN
...towards the light of success
