Logophilia International gala 2017

We are very happy and pleased to share that Ishan Mukherjee Class 8 was National Fourth in Logophilia International Gala 2018 held at CMS Lucknow on the 29th of January. According to the Founder n CEO, Dhruv Raj Sharma, Logophilia Gala is just "a proof of the impossible". It is just this that the students of Bgn Ishan Mukherjee 8 C, Devansh Mittal 8 G and Chetna Rai 8 G the youngest team of Logophilia International gala 2017, got to experience. Three days of rigorous workshop encompassing 12 hrs of learning a day amidst fun and frolic, gradually delving deep into the depths of Etymology, even coining new terms or neologisms (some of which would be sent to the Oxford dictionary) culminated into a life long experience. All 3 students could make it to Super 30 and thereby Ishan to Top 5, in which the other 4 students were all from Colleges. We are proud of the little genius for in the words of Asst. Director Maam "a battle well fought is more honourable than victory sometimes".

REFLECTIONS OF J.L.F

The Jaipur Literature Festival (JLF), that enthuses me to say "Incredible India" rather than simply India, because it is the largest and the grandest Literature Festival on the Earth which is conducted very year in Jaipur. Starting from Namrata Gokhale to Amish Tripathi, Chetan Bhagat, Anurag Kashyap, Sudha Murthy. Sorry, the line is never ending. They all reached there to enrich and make us aware-the lively nature of literature. Sudha Murthy- She told that both women and men are equal of course, they have their different works but they have to work for betterment of mankind at large. She quotes that "Practise makes a man perfect". Anurag Kashyap- A versatile character with many characteristics, such as an inspirational author, director, publisher, actor etc. God knows what not he is! He told that "life has no shortcuts" "You need to struggle hard for getting the juicy fruits in return". Talking about his life, he said that "I struggled lot more than what I thought of". The message that he gave to all of us was that "Don't put all your wealth for bubble reputation." Amish Tripathi is one of the best authors among his contemporaries. Amish talks that life should be simple but thinking should be high rather, thinking should be highest. The moral that we learnt was "Life can be transient but someone who prove himself in that span of time only is the real HERO." Chetan Bhagat- A man who needs no introduction at all, talks that life should be lived as kings and not as slave. Talking about technology, he reports that "World is so advanced that Shaadia Bhi Aajkal shadi.com se hone lagi hai." So just enjoy the life and remember an author is more than others because I still remember someone had said where none can reach, the author's imagination would cross it.

Jaipur, which is known as pink city is full of charm. It is famous for its forts & stupendous palaces some of them are Jaigarh Fort, Nahargarh Fort, Amer Fort, Jal Mahal, World Trade Park & many more. Jaipur as a city is the most clean place we have ever visited. We were amazed to see that Nagar Nigam on regular basis come & collect the garbage from the street. We thought that this should be followed in our city Varanasi. Last the handicraft of Jaipur, they are just amazing. Thankyou Sunbeam for such a life changing experience.

GRAND PARENTS DAY

"Grandparents hold the key to our hearts in ways that no one else can." Team Junior school at Bhagwanpur honored the grandparents with much warmth and love. The program started with tribute to the grandparents, the Founder Mother Mrs. Deeshi Ishrat Madhok and Mr. Amrit Lal Ishrat Madhok and Late Mrs Sartaj kaur Ahluwalia and Mr Bhagat Singh, the proud grandparents. Children dedicated poems to the grandparents expressing their love and gratitude for all the things they have been doing; from reading the bed time stories, to those evening walks in the garden. It would never be enough to thank these superheroes. Grandparents tapped their foot with children on the song "yahi umar hai karle Galti se mistake" To balance the tones set by the events thus far, we had straw game in which the grandpas had to tuck straws in the hair of grandmas, which they did with great zeal. The winners and participants got badges of being the Star Grandparent of the day. Chairman Sir and Director Ma'am shared what it feels like to have grandparents in life, when the parents have to fulfill their responsibilities it is the grandparents who fill the gap and give that love, care and support children need. Ma'am appreciated the way grandparents participated in the dance performance and enjoyed the day. Harsh Sir in his address shared some fond memories of the times he spent with his grandparents. Jr School Headmistress, Ms. Vibha Rai thanked the grandparents for taking the time and making this day special and memorable.
