A fabulous start to the day - 6 am and 9 young talented expressive clever Young Storytellers from India Sunbeam School Tell-a.-Tale competition. Organised by Abhilasha Chandra a fabulous storyteller and inspiring teacher. I was honored and delighted to be the judge today and It was so difficult as every teller was fabulous With the first one setting the pace with high scores across the categories of Language Proficiency. Style and Delivery. Dramatic Appropriateness. and Overall Effect. Each had only 3 minutes to tell their stories and we had traditional tales from around the world. It was hard to choose and there was barely a point between them. On another day it could have a been different choice... Praise to the teachers and parents who actively encourage and praise the children...And those children are so brave - I was not brave enough to stand up and tell a story at their age... Because of their bravery, They will go far in life and achieve their dreams... I am so proud of them all and so happy for them...
