FOUNDRY

KG to Class V kids participated in the summer camp from 9th to 15th of May, 2015 @ Suncity. Each day the young kids would twist and turn on the music of aerobics or soothe their soul to the chants of 'OM' and exercise their mind and body with Surya Namaskar. Music reigned high as children sang and danced everyday on "Suraj ki bahon me" from the film Zindagi na milegi dobara. On the first and second day the KG kids enjoyed the Puppet Show and toy train ride. The rest four days, all the campers enjoyed Rain Dance, Adventure Camp, Pajama party and Movie Show. The Adventure Camp was the biggest ticket of their fun, as all of them absolutely enjoyed each moment with their mentors and tried all types of acrobatic moves needed to accomplish their tasks. During the camp, the participants learnt to make Rope bowls, LED lamps, Clay Modeling, Pencil holders, Zip pouches and also picked up skills @ Calligraphy, Photoshop Editing, Fabric Painting, Western Dance and Gift Wrapping. They also enjoyed Tasty Bites Such as Bread Dhokla with Tang, Shahi Ladoo with Shikanji, Popcorn with Rasna, Bread Pastry with Watermelon, American Corn with crushed Ice ball and Sprouts with Jaljeera on the 6 days of the camp. On the culminating day the campers paid tribute to their mothers.

YOG DIVAS & SATSANG @ SUNCITY

Who says people don't stretch these days and the ancient tradition of Yoga established by Maharishi Patanjali is not in practice anymore? The International Yoga Day decreed by the United Nations to be celebrated on 21st June, saw huge participation by administrators, teachers, students and members of the support staff across branches.

At Suncity also, the members of the support staff enthusiastically participated in the half an hour session facilitated by expert yoga teachers of the school. Various asanas to train the mind and establish the connect between mind, body and soul; pranayams, and dhyana was taught to the participants. Each one of them had a shade of delight across their face which announced their happiness for the drive embraced by the school. The session ended with a promise to the self that the torch of good health will be taken forward and will lead them towards positivity and good health.

Exhibition on Gurudev's Jayanti

The Fine Art students of Suncity paid tribute to the Bard of East- Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore by holding an exhibition of the articles such as hand bags, pen stands, vases, key rings, various decorative pieces that they had made in school. Their work were all inspired by the art and craft of Shantiniketan. Students had also made huge portraits of Gurudev and replicated his paintings. Some of the students had set the poet's famous poetries in calligraphy.

The exhibition was inaugurated by Director-Mrs. Bharti Madhok and Exe. Director-Mr. Harsh Madhok.
