

Suncity Herald

A chronicle by Sunbeam Suncity, Karsana

Estd: 1972

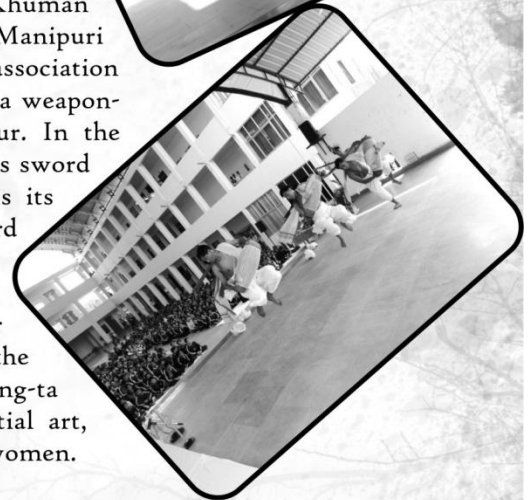

December, 2012 Vol.01 Issue-09

SPICMACAY

The Society for Promotion of Indian Classical Music and Culture amongst the Youth, SPIC MACAY is a joint venture with Indian Council for cultural relations, It conducts over 1000 events throughout the world to patronize cultural growth. SPIC MACAY seeks to conserve and promote awareness of the rich and heterogeneous cultural tapestry amongst the youth of this country through focus on the classical art, dance and music forms.

Children of Sunbeam Suncity witnessed a lecture cum demonstration by renowned Martial Artiste Mr. Chingtham Ranjeet Khuman along with his team at Suncity Atrium on 24th November, 2012. Mr. Chingtham Ranjeet Khuman practices and promotes Manipuri martial art form 'Thang Ta' in association with SPIC MACAY. Thang-ta is a weapon-based Indian martial art of Manipur. In the Manipuri language, thang means sword and ta means spear. As its name implies, the sword and spear are the primary weapons in thang-ta. Other weapons used include the shield and axe. Today thang-ta is the most popular martial art, practiced by both men and women.

The event started with lighting of the lamp by The Chairman, the Director and Deputy Director of Sunbeam Group of Educational Institutions and by Mr. Chingtham Ranjeet Khuman. Various aspects of the art form were showcased by the performers. The children were thrilled and excited to witness the artistes perform the art form to perfection. The kids were also cautioned not to repeat the stunts performed by the trained artistes as it could be fatal. It was a mesmerizing performance. We were privileged to have such great artists in our midst.

DEV DEEPAWALI AT SUNBEAM SUNCITY HOSTEL

On the eve of Kartik Purnima, Dev Deepawali was celebrated at Suncity Hostel. On this occasion the children decorated the hostel with Rangoli and Diyas. A special assembly was organized by the Boarders. Ms. Shivangi Singh of Class X in her speech on Dev Deepawali informed about the significance of the festival. A poem on river Ganga was recited by Master Sachin. A small Quiz was also conducted and the children keenly participated in it. On the day of Kartik Purnima, students visited Gurudwara. In the evening the school pond was decorated with diyas and children did Aarti and sung devotional song. The Chairman and the Director of the Sunbeam Group of Educational Institutions were present on this occasion and gave their blessings and best wishes to children.

INTER HOUSE COMPETITIONS

In order to develop quality of effective speaking a series of Inter house competitions were organized in the month of November at Suncity. For classes I and II an English and Hindi recitation competition were organized on 8th November, 2012.

The students presented their poems beautifully using different props. An inter house English and Hindi debate competition was held in the Multimedia at Suncity on 23rd November, 2012 for classes VI to X. The topics of debate were separate for senior and junior categories. The students participated in all the categories with great interest and keenness. The winners were given the certificates of appreciation.

An Inter House Declamation Competition was held on 27 November, 2011. Students came dressed up as the leaders whose speech they were to deliver. Ms. Shail Agnihotri, Vice Principal, judged the show. Winners were decided on the basis of the content delivery, voice modulation and expression.

The following were the winners :

- | | | |
|-----------------------------------|-------------------|---------------------|
| Master Yash Jaiswal | Class IV A | Red House |
| Master Vaibhav Upadhyay | Class V A | Blue House |
| Master Akhand Pratap Singh | Class IV A | Yellow House |

The winners were awarded with the certificates of appreciation

ONE NATION READING TOGETHER

To celebrate reading as a pleasurable and enriching experience, on 30th November, 2012, the students of Sunbeam School, Suncity participated enthusiastically in 'One Nation Reading Together' an initiative by Scholastic to develop reading habit among students.

Not only students but Admins, Office Staff and support Staff also actively participated in it. At 12 Noon, everyone took the reading pledge and after that got involved in reading the books.

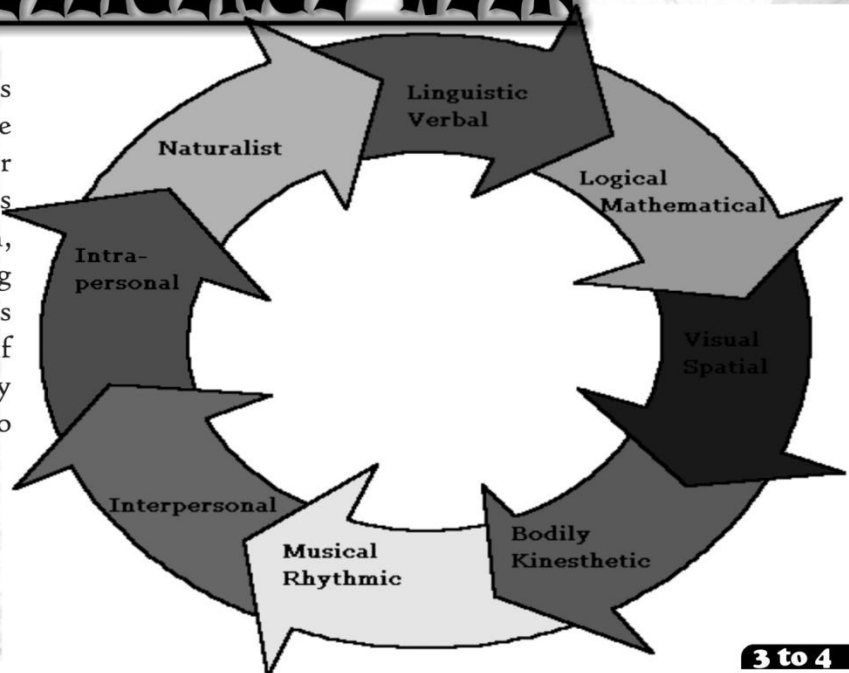

Children, Teaching & non teaching Staff participated in it enthusiastically and showed their keen interest in reading books and magazines of their choice.

MULTIPLE INTELLIGENCE WEEK

The multiple Intelligence week was celebrated at Suncity. MI camps were organized for the kids of the Junior section . Students did various activities like, Diya decoration, Rangoli making, coloring, making rangoli with flowers . This activity is being observed in order to raise self esteem amongst students who may not be academic heroes yet are able to carve niche for themselves.

CLASS TOURS

Class outings were organized for the students to various places. Students explored the beauty and history of different places. Some enjoyed the beauty of Chunar, while others explored the production of health enhancing milk at the Parag Milk Factory and of Savory biscuits at the Parle G factory. Children explored the cultural heritage through their visit to Sarnath. A tour to the Ramnagar Fort.

They were taken around the Museum in the fort which houses the royal collection of Vintage Cars, palkis, antique clocks, ivory artifacts, paintings & pictures of various Nawabs/Kings etc. They also visited the Vyasa temple in the premises of the fort.

Staff of The Month - November, 2012

Mr. Aman Kumar Tripathi has been declared the staff of the month. Extremely devoted to his work, his smile and jovial attitude is what makes him different from others. Extremely committed towards his work, he is shining example for others to follow.